

Wheatland County Fire Ban Levels

Fire Ban—Advisory (Moderate Fire Risk)

Prohibited:

- All Fire Permits
- All Fireworks Permits

Allowed:

- Internal household fire places
- Gas or Propane stoves and Barbecues that are CSA approved or ULC certified
- Portable propane fire pits that are CSA approved or ULC certified
- Catalytic or infrared-style heaters
- Fires contained within approved facilities and appliances in designated camping and recreational areas.
- Incinerators (for farm and acreage use)
- Regulated burning barrels
- Solid fuel barbeques (charcoal briquettes)
- Recreational camp fire (approved fire pit 24" in diameter or less)

Fire Ban—Restriction (Severe fire risk)

Prohibited:

- Incinerators (for farm and acreage use)
- All Fire Permits
- All Fireworks Permits
- Regulated burning barrels
- Solid fuel barbeques (charcoal briquettes)
- Recreational camp fire (approved fire pit 24" in diameter or less)

Allowed:

- Internal household fire places
- Gas or Propane stoves and Barbecues that are CSA approved or ULC certified
- Portable propane fire pits that are CSA approved or ULC certified
- Catalytic or infrared-style heaters
- Fires contained within approved facilities and appliances in designated camping and recreational areas.
- Campstoves

Fire Ban (Extreme fire risk)

Prohibited:

- Incinerators (for farm and acreage use)
- All Fire Permits
- All Fireworks Permits
- Regulated burning barrels
- Solid fuel barbeques (charcoal briquettes)
- Recreational camp fire (approved fire pit 24" in diameter or less)
- Fires contained within approved facilities and appliances in designated camping and recreational areas.

Allowed:

- Internal household fire places
- Gas or Propane stoves and Barbecues that are CSA approved or ULC certified
- Portable propane fire pits that are CSA approved or ULC certified
- Catalytic or infrared-style heaters