

One of Memory Lane's projects for the Spring will be to mount a display of local cattle brands, cut with a router into old corral boards and attached to the concrete retaining wall in Memory Circle. We still have room for more brands, past and present. Just a diagram is all that we need, along with the name or names that you wish to have on a plaque beside the brand.

There will be no charge to you for contributing your brand, but donations to help cover the costs would be appreciated.

Please contact one of the persons listed below for more information, or to contribute your brand and/or a donation.

(A rough example of what the boards will look like. The names will be on plaques.)
